Let us Review your Claim

Are you happy with the way your personal injury compensation claim is being handled? Even if your claim has settled we are still able to review your case free of charge.

If your case has settled, are you happy with the level of compensation you received?

- We can review your claim and, reopen your case if we consider you are entitled to further compensation. If we feel your previous lawyers have mishandled your claim, we will make a claim against them to ensure you receive the compensation you should have been awarded.

If your case is currently progressing:

Have you met the lawyer who is handling your case?

- All our clients are looked after by a team of experts, led by a dedicated lawyer who they will meet on a regular basis.

Do you have to keep chasing your lawyer for information?

- We will keep you up to date on the progress of your case by your preferred method, be it telephone, email or letter.

Do you receive letters full of legal jargon?

- We communicate with our clients in clear English; if correspondence has to be technical we will talk it through with you over the phone so you fully understand the situation.

There is always a way to fund a claim, so give us a call and have a chat, contact us on 0800 652 3371.
